

2019-02-11 Notification

This is a phishing attempt first reported to CSULB ITS on February 11, 2019.

From: Administrator <activate@usc.edu>
Sent: Monday, February 11, 2019 10:30 AM
To: Recipients
Subject: Notification

Summary

The fraudulent email request recipients to click on the link to restore their email account from supposedly being removed. The link goes to a fraudulent login page.

Intent of the Email

This is an attempt to acquire personal account credentials.

Screenshots

From: Administrator <activate@usc.edu>
Sent: Monday, February 11, 2019 10:30 AM
To: Recipients
Subject: Notification

Dear User,

Your Email account access will be removed in the next 24hrs as your device has been sending shot down request to our internal server.

If you think it's an error:

Login To Restore Account

This message was sent from an unmonitored e-mail address. Please do not reply to this message.

Privacy | Legal

Microsoft Office
One Microsoft Way
Redmond, WA
98052-6399 USA

Figure 1: Screenshot of the phishing email

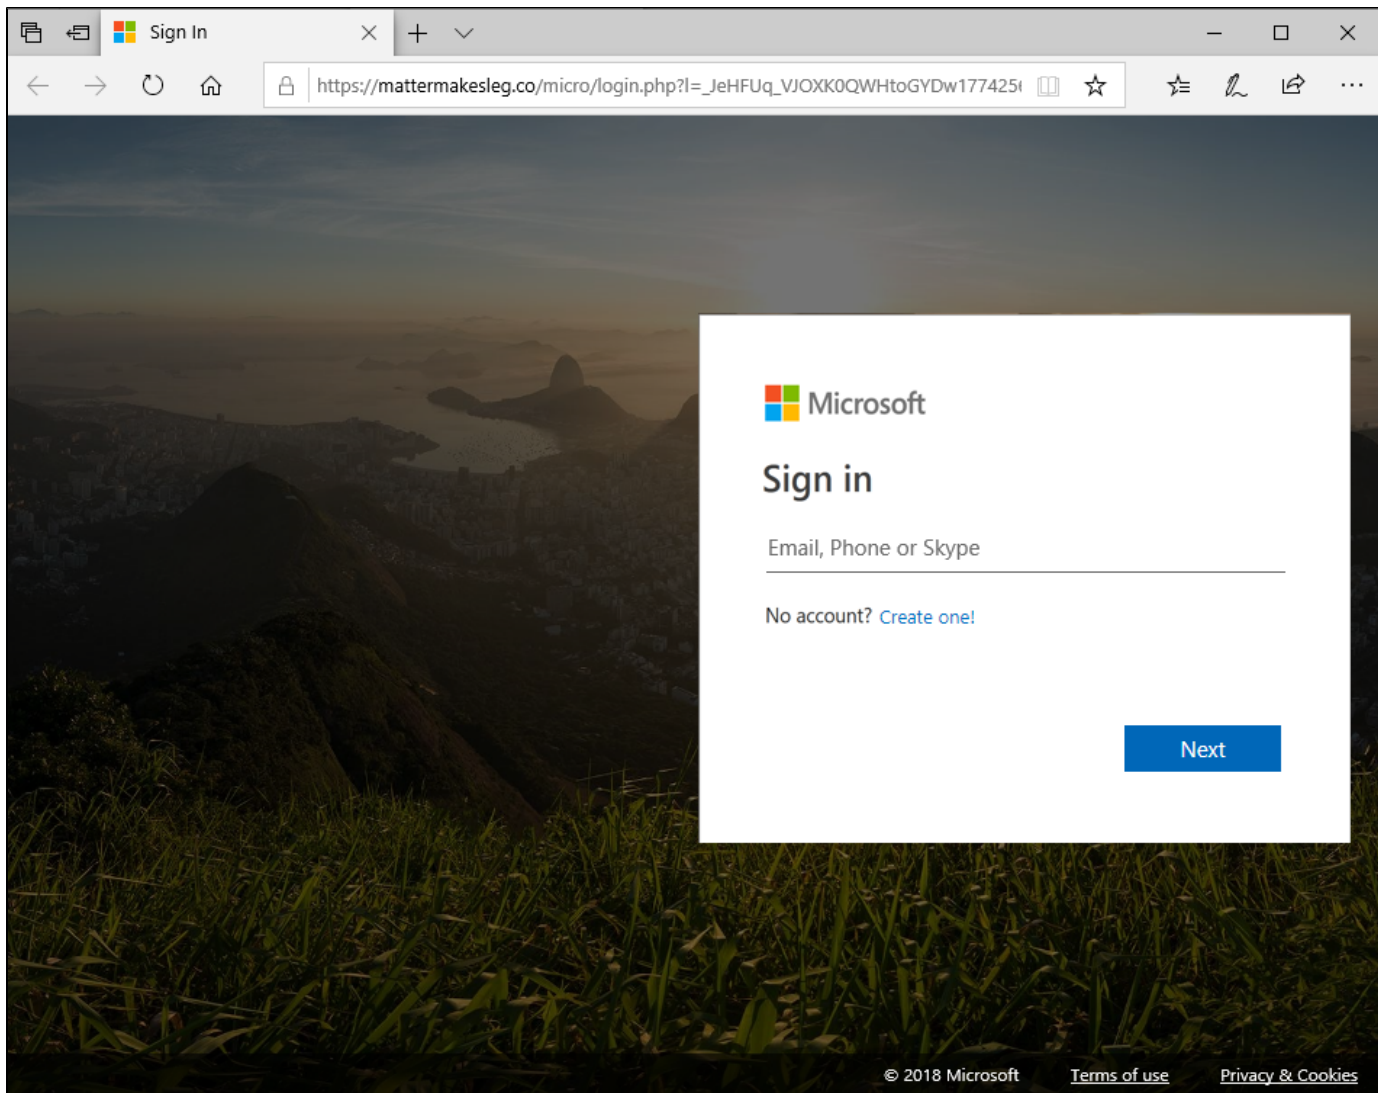

Figure 2: Screenshot of the phishing fraudulent page

View all Phishing Reports:

All Phishing Reports